Day 1: 21 May 2022 - Perth

Today we travel to Perth where we are transferred to the Pan Pacific Hotel on arrival. With scenic vistas of the Swan River, our five-star luxury hotel is located a short distance from Perth's CBD and main entertainment precincts. If time permits head out and explore Perth. This evening we join our fellow travellers for a welcome dinner. Pan Pacific Hotel Perth - (D)

Day 2: 22 May 2022 - Margaret River

After a leisurely breakfast we will depart the hotel and travel towards the Margaret River Region. Our first stop at the popular holiday town of Busselton to see the world's second-longest jetty, stretching 1.8km. This heritage listed Jetty is the longest timber-piled jetty in the Southern Hemisphere. Time to grab a coffee and then continue onto "Lentedal Winery" for a wine tasting and leisurely lunch. Lentedal Winery, nestled close to Busselton and Dunsborough, offers a unique, cellar door experience. After lunch we continue onto Flametree Wines for a tasting. Our journey take the luxurious appointed Bunker Bay Resort. Our home away from home for the next 3 nights.

Dinner at Bunker Bay (own account)

Bunker Bay Resort - Studio Villa - (BL)

Optional Tour: Tonight we have an optional cultural experience with Koomal Dreaming. This includes meeting local custodian Josh and learn about the deep connection the Wadandi people have to the Cape to Cape region, with a Welcome to Country, followed by an easy 2.5 kilometre walk around the tip of Cape Naturaliste, interpreting the flora and fauna of the seasonal landscape to you through the eyes of an indigenous custodian. You'll be mesmerised by a live didgeridoo performance, storytelling and traditional fire-making. Dinner is a BBQ accompanied by seasonal native food tastings and refreshments. Tour costs $155 per person

Day 3: 23 May 2022 - Margaret River

Breakfast at the resort before exploring the region. First stop is at Barnyard 1978. Here you can taste seven varieties of pure, unprocessed and deliciously sweet honey straight from the beehive. Next we arrive at "Fermoy Estate" for a wine tasting then onto Glenarty Road Farm for their "Feast", a culinary lunch experience! This relaxed and rustic farmhouse brings together Glenarty Road and Kerfuffle Wines, in a farm to table style feast. Later this afternoon we will visit "Gabriel Chocolates" for afternoon tea and tastings.

Dinner at Bunker Bay (own account).

Day 5: 25 May 2022 - Margaret River

Breakfast at Bunker Bay then checkout. Today we visit the "Margaret River Distilling Company" for a quick Gin tasting then continue onto lunch and tastings at the award winning "Wills Domain". The restaurant overlooks the rolling vine-covered hills of Yallingup and the seasonal, fine dining menu has a focus on sustainable, wild harvested produce by Head Chef, Seth James. The onsite gardens grow much of our produce and offer a rare insight into the depth and lengths our kitchen takes to showcase a unique, stylish and innovative approach. Travelling back, we stop in Bunbury for afternoon tea before arriving back into Fremantle in the late afternoon.

Hotel in Fremantle.

Esplanade Hotel Fremantle - (BL)

Day 6: 26 May 2022 - Rottnest Island

Breakfast at the hotel this morning then we head off to Rottnest Island for 2 nights at the luxurious Samphire Resort in a Beach Lane King Suite including breakfast daily.

Just a short ferry ride from Fremantle we land at Rottnest Island. This beautiful island offers 45kms of walking trails, a fascinating cultural heritage and amazing native wildlife, including a colony of New Zealand fur seals and around 10,000 adorable quokkas.

Swim, snorkel, hike, hire a bike or just laze on the sand - this pocket-sized paradise really does have something for everyone.

Samphire Resort - The rooms offer a private terrace for that morning coffee or evening glass of wine. Samphire Rottnest will encourage guests to immerse themselves in the elements, feel the sand between their toes and become blissfully at one with the salt air and the unique, native beauty of Rottnest Island.

Beyond the in-room amenities, Samphire Rottnest includes dining options that form a key part of the experience including an indoor/outdoor dining hub, Beach Club, lounge and poolside offerings, delivering a communal place for guests to enjoy.
